SUBJECT: Interstate Compact for Juveniles (ICJ) Update

WI-ICJ Office Update

Interstate Compact Coordinator, Jocelyn Schoeneck, will be on maternity leave from July 30 – October 19, 2012. During this time period, please direct all Interstate Compact inquiries and correspondence to Interstate Compact Commissioner, Shelley Hagan, at 608-240-5918 or WI-ICJ@wisconsin.gov.

Juvenile Interstate Data System (JIDS) Update

In preparation for the implementation of JIDS, we wanted to provide you with a brief update. JIDS is now in the testing phase of development. The National Office is conducting a thorough review of JIDS to ensure the system is configured according to ICJ's business processes. Once the National Office completes this review, user acceptance testing (UAT) will begin.

The initial plan for developing and implementing JIDS set a launch date for July 1, 2012. However, delays occurred in development resulting from a comprehensive documentation phase and extensive testing. JIDS' launch is now set for August 1, 2012.

The following counties are currently on board for the JIDS pilot group: Kenosha County DCFS, Portage County HSD, Racine County HSD, and St. Croix County DHHS. One field agent in the DJC Milwaukee office will also be part of the pilot. The ICJ office will be providing the National Office with the user load (pilot group members) information for the above-mentioned agencies by July 13, 2012. We will keep our pilot group posted with further updates.

We appreciate your agency's understanding and cooperation during this time of change for the ICJ and the WI-ICJ office.
